PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

BAE SYSTEMS, INC.

Technical Project Manager II — May 2025 - Present

- Pulled a $112M+ enterprise network program back from likely cancellation with a 61-item requirements review approved on every recommendation (60 of 61 now implemented); was delegated authority to drive it forward.
- Keeps a multi-org platform program on track as it grew from $60M+ to $112M in scope, owning requirements, schedule, risk, and interface dependencies across engineering partners as primary customer POC.
- Cuts about 60% of manual review overhead with a reusable SysML analysis tool shipped in 3 months vs. 6 planned.
- Rebuilding the team's technical bench with 5 engineering hires, owning interviews, selection, and onboarding.

GE HEALTHCARE

Lead Systems Engineer — Aug 2024 - May 2025

- Drove a C-arm feature serving 100K+ users to a clean release, managing FMEA, hazard analysis, FDA/HIPAA validation, clinical usability testing, and board review across cross-functional teams.
- Coordinated cross-functional resolution of 120+ pre-release defects through continuous agile testing.
- Delivered a new 3D imaging feature end to end with zero post-release issues and global physician adoption.

NORTHROP GRUMMAN CORPORATION

Systems Engineer — Apr 2023 - Aug 2024

- Cut redline reporting by up to 8 hours per person by connecting the requirements management platform to Tableau with a SQL analyst, giving leadership exact progress metrics; adopted across engineering teams.
- Integrated 500+ high-consequence regulatory compliance requirements across HW/SW teams with zero rework.
- Kept 2 sub-teams on schedule for design milestones by standing up Jira tracking that tagged blockers by org.

U.S. AIR FORCE

Logistics and Operations Lead — Apr 2016 - Apr 2023

- Built the team's most-used tracking tool to run daily scheduling for a $7.9B enterprise asset portfolio (63 units), managing 600 changes and 15K operational delivery events; trained other teams to adopt it.
- Met a zero-notice executive escalation, mobilizing 10 people, 3 aircraft, and 86 tons of cargo in under 18 hours.
